New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

We Announce for To-day
The Opening of Our

NEW ART PICTURE and FRAMING SHOPS

On the Fourth Floor of Our Recently Completed F Street Building,
DISPLAYING IN COMPLETE AND EXTENSIVE ASSORTMENTS A RICH AND HANDSOME COLLECTION OF

Genuine Oil Paintings, Separate Frames of every wood and finish,
Framed Pictures of all kinds, Picture Moldings of all the various woods,
Unframed Pictures, metals, and compositions.

In connection with this special showing and to give unusual prominence to the occasion, we will place on sale

100 Artists' Proof Etchings and Steel Engravings

At $5.00 Each.

Regularly Priced at $15.00 to $48.00.

These were formerly owned by the celebrated art dealers and publishers, Messrs. M. Knoedler & Co., Fifth Avenue, New York. Each and every one is a specimen of art of the highest standard and represents the careful work of a quarter century ago, when perfection and artisticness were not sacrificed to haste.

They are all in the sheet, the actual sizes of pictures varying from 11x14 inches to 20x30 inches, the sheets themselves, of course, being considerably larger.

Among the prints are Original Etchings, some on parchment, as well as Steel Engravings, reproductions of celebrated paintings; a number of subjects for selection—landscape, marine, figure pieces, in such diversity as to afford a most varied choice.

We Also Place on Sale

A Lot of French Prints and Prints of Old Masters,
In a wide range of subjects, in beautiful antique frames, finished with bow-knot decoration. These were procured also specially for this occasion and represent an unusual value at the Special Price, 50c Each.

Our Picture Framing Shop

Has long been noted for its excellence of work; the perfect harmony that we always obtain between picture and the subject to be framed itself is a feature that we take special interest in. We employ only skilled labor and select the highest grade moldings of the best woods, in all designs, widths and finishes; also the richest and handsomest gold, gilt, and other metal and composition moldings, in the widest latitude.

It is well worthy your inspection, and upon application at the Picture Shop a guide will gladly serve you.

We feel that with the new location the enlargement of the department, the exceptionally fine lighting facilities, and the abundance of natural light, we present much more favorable conditions in every respect, and we would have you visit the New Shop and its galleries to see the fine display of Pictures, the variety of the subjects, and view the different types of art work and conditions under which they are shown. They represent the highest perfection in Picture display.

Whether your visit be to purchase or wander idly through the galleries, easy chairs, restful surroundings, and inviting conveniences suggest and induce your stay and provide for your utmost comfort in viewing the elegant displays or serve you in making your selections.

A Cordial and General Invitation Is Extended All.

ANNUAL 'MUM' SHOW WILL OPEN TO-DAY

Choice Blossoms to Be Exhibited at Agricultural Department
Greenhouses.

Washington society will flock to the opening this morning at 9 o'clock of the annual exhibition of chrysanthemums by the Department of Agriculture in the greenhouses at Fourteenth and B Streets Northwest. The show will continue all week and the greenhouses will be open to the public daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The chrysanthemum show in Washington is one of the events of the year for florists in all parts of the country. Many of them write the Agricultural Department weeks ahead to ascertain the date of the opening in order that they may be on hand to study the methods of the government florists at first hand.

Officials at the department fear that the exhibition this year may not be as varied as in previous years, as the unusually warm weather which prevailed during the early fall stimulated the growth of the plants to an undesirable degree and the blossoms before the stems were fully hardened.

Among the new varieties this year, one of the most striking is the "William Kleinheinz," with petals of deep red backed with bright yellow. An immense white blossom bears the name of "Christy Mathewson." Other new varieties which are sure to gain admiration are "George J. Brunsard," "Mrs. Gilbert Drabble," the "Manhattan," "Smith's Sensation," "Artistic Queen," and "Mary Poulton."

These are only a few of the many splendid new varieties that occupy the center of chrysanthemum house. More than 400 other varieties are to be on display.

Rites for Mrs. Catherine L. North.
The body of Mrs. Catherine L. North, widow of Willoughby North, who died last Friday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Hilda North Dulac, 128 Fifteenth Street Northwest, will be interred this afternoon beside the grave of her husband in Oak Hill Cemetery. Funeral services will be held at 3:30 o'clock at her daughter's residence. Rev. J. M. E. McKee, of the Episcopal Cathedral staff, will officiate.

Society

The engagement of Miss Katherine Britton to Mr. Averill Harriman, son of the late Mr. E. H. Harriman and Mrs. Harriman, published in the November issue of Vogue, is denied by Mrs. Alexander Britton, who declares her daughter is engaged to no one.

Announcement has been made by the Minister of Uruguay and Mme. de Pena of the engagement of their youngest daughter, Senorita Malvina de Pena, to Senor Don Alejandro Herquinio, second secretary of the legation of Chile. No date has yet been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the early winter. The bride is expected to have made her debut this fall.

Washington is accustomed to international marriages, but it is rather unusual to have both the principals concerned foreigners. The last wedding in the diplomatic corps was that of Countess Louise-Alexandra von Bernstorff, daughter of the German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff, and Count Raymond de Fourtelle, of the embassy staff, which took place a year ago last spring.

Mr. Alfred Horstmann, secretary of the German Embassy, will sail to-morrow on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse of the North German Lloyd Line, for Bremen.

Representative and Mrs. Andrew J. Peters have returned to Washington from Beverly, Mass., where they spent the summer with Mrs. Peters' mother, Mrs. John C. Phillips, and have opened the residence, 1601 Twenty-first Street, which they have leased for the winter.

The House of Mercy will give its annual tea and sale of aprons in the rooms of the new home, Klinge Road and Rosemont Avenue, on Thursday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. John McGowan, Mrs. R. R. Hoes, and Mrs. John Biddle will be in charge of the tea rooms, and they have worked hard to make the occasion a successful one, as these teas are always largely attended by the many Washingtonians interested in the charity.

Representative and Mrs. Stevens, of California, who will occupy an apartment in Congress Hall for the winter, will introduce their debutante daughter, Miss Barbara Stevens, to society early in the season.

Mrs. Rollins Morse, of New York and Newport, has leased the Paderford house, 1721 I Street, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sterling are stopping for a short time at the Grafton before returning to their home in England. Mrs. Sterling was formerly Miss Ethel Robeson, of this city.

Mrs. James Harriman and her daughter, Miss Alice Harriman, are spending a short time in Washington. They plan to close their residence, 128 Connecticut Avenue, within a few weeks, and will spend the winter in the South. They will be much missed in Washington by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Taylor, of Mobile, Ala., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Taylor, to Ensign James L. Abbott, U. S. N. The date of the wedding has not yet been set. Miss Abbott is a member of the class of 1912, United States Naval Academy, and was captain of the baseball nine last spring. He was appointed to the Academy from Arkansas.

Mrs. John H. Magruder has returned to Washington from Essex, N. Y., and joined her husband at their home in S Street. Miss Natalie Magruder is visiting friends in New York and will not reach Washington until next week.

Miss Elizabeth Anderson, daughter of Dr. Joseph Anderson, who has just leased Capitol Hill, is spending the winter in Nineteenth Street for the winter. She was maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Mary Graham Bowdoin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Bowdoin, and Mr. Howard Bowdoin, which took place Saturday afternoon at Grace Protestant Episcopal Church, Elkhridge, Howard County, Md.

Mrs. Merrill has returned to Washington from the North Shore and opened her residence in K Street for the winter.

Mrs. Richard Weightman, who has leased her house to Sunderland Place, will spend the early winter in Washington.

Mr. William Hitt is visiting Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins at her country place, "Halehurst," Elkins, W. Va.

Dr. and Mrs. William Moore have just returned to Washington from visiting the former's parents in Berryville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lee have closed their country home near Leesburg, Va., and returned to Washington and opened their residence, 132 Massachusetts Avenue, for the winter.

With the date of the wedding of Mr. John Russell Pope, of New York, and Miss Sadie Green Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rembrandt Jones, of New York, less than a week off, Airline-on-the-Sound, the beautiful estate of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, near Wilmington, N. C., is very busy with preparations for the event, which is of great social interest not only in Wilmington but in New York, Baltimore and Washington.

The wedding will take place next Thursday at Airline Chapel, about 100 yards from the residence. There will be present a large number of society folks from New York, Baltimore, and Washington.

Bishop Robert Strange, of the Diocese of East Carolina, will perform the ceremony. Immediately following the ceremony a large reception will be held at Airline.

The bride will be attended by Mrs. Gordon Wilson, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Jan Whigham, of New York, as dames of honor.

Mr. Phoenix Ingraham, of New York, will be the best man. Soon after the reception the bride and bridesmaids will leave in a private car for the Atlantic Coast Line for their bridal trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, the latter formerly Mrs. Margaret Emerson McKim, of Baltimore, who have been abroad since their marriage, are due in New York about November 1. Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt will go at once to the Vanderbilt Hotel, and will take possession of their apartment, which occupies the entire eighteenth floor. Later they may be the guests of Mrs. Vanderbilt's mother, Mrs. C. Habington Bassett, at her home, 2500 Eutaw Place.

benefit of needy members of the German aristocracy. It is the first occasion in Germany of a public benefit organized on behalf of this class.

The wedding of Miss Ellen Barry, only daughter of Maj. Gen. Thomas H. Barry, commanding the Eastern Division, U. S. A., to First Lieut. William Bryden, Fifth Field Artillery, U. S. A., was celebrated at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in the Chapel of the Centurion, Governors Island, which was decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums. The Rev. Edmund B. Smith performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a trailing gown of white satin, trimmed with lace and embroidered with pearls. Her tulle veil was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her maid of honor was Miss Lida Patch, and her bridesmaids were the Misses Aimes Sheridan, Mildred Greble, and Annie Greble, of Washington. Their gowns were pink satin draped with chiffon, and they wore large black velvet picture hats. They carried bouquets of pink roses.

The best man was Lieut. Philip H. Worcester, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., and the ushers were Capt. Charles R. Pettis, Engineers Corps, U. S. A.; Lieut. M. E. Spaulding, Seventeenth Infantry, U. S. A.; Mr. Thomas V. Barry, brother of the bride, and Mr. Jesse Gould.

After the church ceremony a small reception was given at the home of the bride's parents on Governors Island. After November 16 Lieut. and Mrs. Bryden will be at home at Fort Sill, Okla., where Lieut. Bryden is stationed.

Commander Padier de Aquino, naval attaché of the Brazilian Embassy, is stopping at the Grafton while awaiting the arrival of Miss de Aquino, who will join him shortly. They will take a house here for the winter months.

Miss Florence Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Franklin Schneider, will be a debutante of the winter. She will be presented to society by her mother at an afternoon tea at the Cairo, Mrs. Schneider will also give a series of dances late in the season in her daughter's honor.

The engagement of Miss Constance Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren, of New York and Newport, to Comte Guy de Lasterrie, son of the Marquis and Marquise de Lasterrie, of Paris, which was announced Saturday, is one of the notable engagements of the autumn. Miss Warren is one of the most prominent young women in society, and has for a time been a leader in outdoor sport at Newport among the younger set. She has been abroad since last May with her parents and younger brother, Mr. George Henry Warren, Jr., and they are expected to return to New York about the middle of next month. She is a niece of Mrs. Robert Goetz and of Mrs. William Starr Miller, and a sister of Mr. Lloyd Warren.

A linen shower was given last night at the home of Mr. Elmer W. Biehn, in honor of Miss Elsie R. Sniffin, who is to be the bride of Mr. Thomas P. Shoemaker. Several solos were given and refreshments served. Miss Sniffin received many beautiful gifts. Among those present were the Misses Mamie Quigley, Bertha Whalley, Carroll Frick, Lillian Davis, Annie Malsack, Julia Berans, Amelia Hollander, Louis Hawley, Edmore Roughly, Jennie Dodge, Kate Hale, Gertrude Kummer, in society, and has for a time been a leader in outdoor sport at Newport among the younger set. She has been abroad since last May with her parents and younger brother, Mr. George Henry Warren, Jr., and they are expected to return to New York about the middle of next month. She is a niece of Mrs. Robert Goetz and of Mrs. William Starr Miller, and a sister of Mr. Lloyd Warren.

CHURCHES OBSERVE 'TUBERCULOSIS DAY'

Pastors in All Parts of City Preach on Great White Plague at Services.

"Tuberculosis Sunday," set aside by churches throughout the United States in response to an appeal by the National Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, was observed in the District by special sermons and prayers yesterday morning and last night.

In several sermons the preachers impressed upon their congregations the duty of combating the disease, and numerous lessons of cleanliness and health were taught. At the Methodist Episcopal Church, there was a symposium of physicians last night. At Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church South, Miss Ruth Rimmer, former secretary of the Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, made an address, and the pastor, Rev. R. L. Fultz, preached an appropriate sermon.

Rev. Dr. John Van Schaick, Jr., at the Church of Our Father, in preaching upon the relation of impure milk to tuberculosis, declared that "Congress, or an element in Congress, for years has attempted to harp on the subject, and in every way possible limit the activities of the Health Department."

Rev. George A. Miller preached a special sermon on "The Survival of the Unfittest," at Ninth Street Christian Church last night, and at the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church, Rev. Joseph H. Sutherland, a retired army chaplain, preached on "Religion and Health."

Rev. John T. Budd, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church, preached on "The Great White Plague." Rev. C. R. Stetson, D. D., of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Rev. C. S. Abbott, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, pointed out the need of exercise and fresh air as aids to health; Rev. J. D. Buhrer, of the First Reformed Trinity German Lutheran Church, preached on the work of prevention, and at Westminster Presbyterian Church, there was a special educational service for children.

Michigan has one auto in use for each eighty-five inhabitants.
